Cover Letter:

To whom it may concern,

Hi, my name is Anton Stechman, I am 30 years old and am a father of three

I am applying for this position as I feel it would be a great fit for me, I have been in retail/hospitality for 11+ years which means I have excellent customer service and communication skills. I am also very passionate about IT and plan to start building my IT career

A bit about me: I have been in Butchery for 11 years and want a change, I have spent the last 3½ years in management and have this year decided to step down and pursue my passions which is a career in IT, I am currently doing a Diploma In Web Development (NCEA Level 5) at the open polytechnic, so being able to work in the industry while studying would be ideal. I am a “Hobbyist” programmer, Game Developer and Musician. I spend most of my free time with my children or building games, I currently have a game scheduled to release into Steam early access Q2 next year (release date pending). I also have a genuine interest in computers and spend a lot of time researching new upcoming hardware (by researching I mean watching Linus tech tips on Youtube)

Why I think I would be a good fit for this role: Well first off I have 11years of “frontline” customer service experience I also have 3½ retail management experience which involves a lot of problem solving and dealing with all different types of people. On top of that I have a real passion for the industry and have a pretty good understanding of the development cycle at least in a personal-use capacity. In general, I rate myself as being a hard-worker who is mature and can work on their own and also as a part of a team, I pride myself on my work ethic and “teamness” (that’s definitely a word) after 3 years in management I feel I have a pretty good grasp on the importance of team work and how each person no matter how big or small their role is in a project still plays a key role to the success of the team and the project/task at hand. I am motivated, determined, honest and take ownership of anything I am handed and always like to push myself to do/be more. Bottom line, you will not regret bringing me onboard into your team in any capacity as I will always give my all to try exceed my own and your expectations and try my best to be an integral part of your team.

I appreciate you taking the time to read this application and I look forward to hearing from you.

Kind Regards,

Anton Stechman

To whom it may concern.

Anton has worked for me as an apprentice/butcher for the past five years. He has had several roles in the butchery starting off as a cleaner then progressing through to a fully qualified butcher. Anton has acted as my 2IC when I have been away, and has done a fantastic job of running the team. Anton is extremely hard working, punctual, and works well in a team environment. He would be a valuable asset to other workplace.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Re: Anton Bradley Stechman

I confirm that I have known Anton Stechman for approximately the past five years. He is our daughter Stacey's fiancé and father of our two grandchildren, Lucas and Rebecca.

Anton is very dedicated to both his family and his career, and endeavours to keep a healthy balance between his work and family life. He always makes time for Stacey and their children in the evenings, and on his days off they usually have a family outing. This is a reflection of his upbringing in a close-knit family, and I have witnessed Anton's relationship with his parents, grandparents and siblings, where he is a much loved son, grandson and brother to them all.

I believe Anton has a good work ethic, is diligent and keen to extend himself further in the workplace. He is easy-going and has a calm nature and good sense of humour, which I'm sure those with whom he works would agree. Anton is honest, patient and polite – important attributes which would be appreciated by both his employer and work colleagues.

I would not hesitate in recommending Anton for any role that requires dedication, honesty and patience. Both my husband and myself think highly of Anton and wish him all the best for any future endeavours.

Sincerely

Helen McLean

Qualifications:

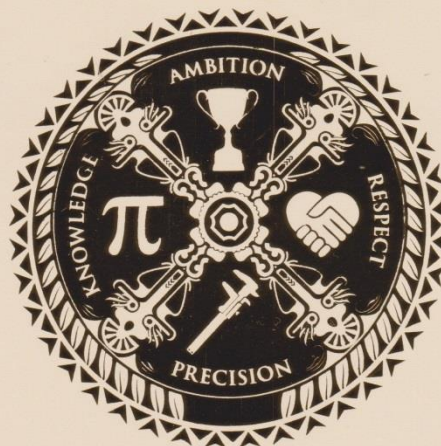

I am a qualified Butcher I have been for almost 6 years now I passed all my Butchery courses being in the top 5% of the class in one occasion I had the highest grades in the class.
